

Second Practice

Title: Development of disciplined student teachers having administrative and leadership qualities in them.

Goal

To inculcate administrative and leadership qualities in student teachers.

The Context

The institution has the vision to inculcate discipline, administrative and leadership qualities in the student teachers passing out. These qualities will help them in day to day working and establish them as efficient and self-confident teachers in the working field.

The Practice

The management committee of the institution is of the view that all student teachers admitted should participate in some or the other co-curricular activities of her choice.

The institution involves some of the student teachers in various internal committees declared after the organization of orientation course for newly admitted student teachers to organize day to day activities in the campus. By the participation in different administrative committees, a skill to organize activities or events is developed in them. The institution develops the leadership and organizing qualities in them by involving in organizational process. The institution makes sure that there is participation of all students in the activities through house tournaments. All student teachers are allocated one of the four houses namely (1) Meera house (2) Indra House (3) Sarojni House and (4) Laxmi House and all co-curricular activities such as debate, quiz, essay writing, rangoli, mehendi competition and indoor as well as outdoor sports activities are conducted through them. These activities develop discipline in them. While participating or playing, they learn the habit of accommodating and cooperating with others, to listen to others. Sometimes, decision may be not be favourable to them but they learn to honour the decision. Since sports persons have to take decision on the spot, this activity also enhances the decision making power in them.

Evidence of Success

The teacher in charges of various activities have observed a vast difference in the attitude and working of student teachers, when they were admitted and when they passed out from the institution. An increase in the self-confidence of the passing out student teachers was observed.

Obstacle faced

In some of the activities, more than required participants are interested in taking part in the activity for their house. In such a situation the captain and vice-captain jointly organize that event at their level and best student teacher is given chance to represent the house.
